

“Those things which are of secondary importance,” he said, “such as fasting, vigils, withdrawal from the world, meditation on Scripture, we ought to practice with a view to our main object, that the soul may ever cleave to God. Whatever is alien to this, however great it may be, should be given the second place, or even treated as of no consequence, or perhaps as hurtful.”

Quotation from Abba Moses

The point of prayer is not the power that it releases but the person it reveals... I don't pray because I'm into prayer. I pray because I'm into Jesus, so we talk. I don't believe in the power of prayer. I believe in the power of Jesus, so I ask for his help. A lot. The vision is Jesus. Everything else is secondary... I'm not into worship, I'm into Jesus. The vision is Jesus.

The vision is Jesus. Not Christianity... It might be healthier if we all just stopped being Christians for a bit – a week, a month or even a year. We're just too good at it. It has become habitual. Urgent voices are calling us to abandon the familiar comforts of Christendom, to strike out into the unknown and rediscover the Nazarene... We are overfamiliar with holy things

John 3:16

For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.

1 Corinthians 1:30

Proverbs 3

- ¹³ Blessed are those who find wisdom,
those who gain understanding,
¹⁴ for she is more profitable than silver and yields better returns than gold.
¹⁵ She is more precious than rubies;
nothing you desire can compare with her.
¹⁶ Long life is in her right hand;
in her left hand are riches and honour.
¹⁷ Her ways are pleasant ways,
and all her paths are peace.
¹⁸ She is a tree of life to those who take hold of her;
those who hold her fast will be blessed.

John 11:25

I am the resurrection and the life.

Matthew 11:28

Come to me, all you who are burdened and heavy laden,
and I will give you rest.
